- ii. Expenditure Statement (Annexure 5.2)
 - iii. Budget Head Appropriation (Annexure 5.3)
 - iv. University's Bank Accounts - Status of newly created bank accounts (Annexure 5.4)
- Section III. (b) (i). (b) of these minutes can be referred to as decisions for the Finance Report presented before the Council which is replicated as – “.... the Council agreed that the Auditor needs to be nominated by the office of the Accountant General. It was also decided that all accounts and expenses of the University should be internally audited by an Internal Auditor/Chartered Accountant (CA) which should then be audited by the Statutory Auditor appointed by the office of the Accountant General when appointed and placed before the Council again.”
- h. Budget FY 2025-2026 (Annexure 6)
- i. The Hon'ble Chancellor raised the point as regards the high costs of development of the proposed IT infrastructures (Augmented and Virtual Reality, Large Language Model (LLM) Server etc.) and to whether proposals of such digital infrastructure at the proposed costs was justified in such a Law University in a small area with limited students. He also enquired whether the same was proportionate or disproportionate to the actual funds/budget proposed and the number of students.
 - ii. While the Vice Chancellor was presenting the proposed Budget, the Chief Secretary of Meghalaya raised a point against the proposed costs of the Digital Infrastructure (Augmented and Virtual Reality, Large Language Model (LLM) Server etc.) which is quite high.
- RESOLVED that the Vice-Chancellor shall submit a proper explanatory note on digital infrastructure, including why NLU Meg requires a highly configured server in the proposed budget to justify the expenditure.

i. Infrastructure Requirements

- i. Space requirements for classrooms, student residences, faculty residences, guest house, and prefabricated structures

k. Review and approval of matters related to Service Rules, Regulations, and Reservation Policy (Annexure 8)

- i. The Council Member, Hon'ble Mr. Justice H S Thangkhiew, stated that it is not acceptable that annexures, especially ones related to framing of policies and processes, are not provided beforehand.
- ii. A discussion in the meeting following assertions made by Hon'ble Mr. Justice H S Thangkhiew and supported by Hon'ble Justice W Dikngdoh and Shri D.P.Wahang, IAS, Chief Secretary to the Government of Meghalaya,
 - a. That the reservation policy for the university should be 100% for permanent posts as per the Meghalaya State Reservation Policy, and it is non-negotiable.
 - b. That Unreserved (UR) as per the policy stands to be Unreserved for the domicile of Meghalaya.

- iii. The Chief Secretary, Government of Meghalaya noted that upon unavailability of domicile candidates for posts, “contractual” (tenured) appointments were proposed and approved by the previous Council. Hence, the hybrid mode of recruitment in “tenure” and “permanent” posts be promoted in the university. He mentioned that contractual posts (tenured) do not come under the purview of the reservation policy. The Council was, however, unanimous that balance and ratio should be maintained for the same.
- iv. The Hon’ble Chancellor suggested that whatever vacancies are available for recruitment should be advertised on a “permanent” basis, subject to the Meghalaya Reservation Policy.
- v. The Vice-Chancellor indicated that there might not be duly qualified applicants from the state domicile for the subjects and domains required in the university, and he also sought clarity on the existing faculties whose tenure will be ending in June 2025.
- vi. The Hon’ble Chancellor suggested that another advertisement be published out listing out requirements of faculties for particular subjects, which are required for six (6) months, with a clause that clearly states that the post is terminable on one month’s notice, subject to selection of permanent/regular faculty.
- vii. The Hon’ble Chancellor also highlighted that long tenures couldn’t be offered because that might lead to accusations of circumventing and supersession of the reservation policy.
- viii. The Hon’ble Chancellor proposed that the recruitment process be followed for the selection of permanent posts subject to reservation, and if proper candidates were not found to be eligible, then an expert committee should be constituted for domains and subjects that can propose recruitment in tenure.
- ix. In view of the aforementioned, the Service Rules presented as Annexure 8 were not approved by the members.

RESOLVED that a committee be constituted to frame the service rules of the university. The committee will look comprehensively at all related aspects and implications of the service rules, including the reservation policy of the State, maintaining the desired level of academic excellence etc. The committee should comprise the following members: -

1. Chief Secretary, Government of Meghalaya
2. Advocate General, High Court of Meghalaya
3. Director, Meghalaya State Judicial Academy, Meghalaya
4. Vice Chancellor, National Law University of Meghalaya to be the convener.

RESOLVED that till the committee is constituted and framing the rules and regulations completed, all existing contractual (tenure) appointments will continue, subject to further decision of the Council.

- I. Approval of selection of Deputy Registrar on “tenure” as per Advert. No.: NLUM/09/Estt/Advt./2022/84 Dated 14th of April 2023 appointed on 19th December 2024 and joined on the 20th of January 2025. (Annexure 9)

- i. The Vice-Chancellor highlighted to the Council members that “Clause 18: Powers of the Vice Chancellor” of the First Statute of the National Law University of Meghalaya was invoked while appointing the current Deputy Registrar for a fixed period in the interest of the administration, with the approval of the competent authority.
- ii. The Hon’ble Mr. Justice H S Thangkhiew raised the issue that the appointment was not made according to the reservation policy and the selection committee that was part of the selection process was not constituted as per the Statute and also executive council representative in the selection committee was not approved by the Executive Council members.

RESOLVED unanimously after deliberating on the matter, that the appointment of the Deputy Registrar’s should be subject to a fresh selection for the formularizing process to the post of which should be started with 100% reservation and until the selection process is completed, the current Deputy Registrar can continue to be in service. The selection process will be monitored by Hon’ble Mr. Justice H S Thangkhiew.
